VOL. XVII.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY,

JUNE 4, 1898.

No. 1.

Hon. J. W. Ross.—Is no doubt one of the best officials under this Administration. He retires from the Presidency of the Board of Commissioners with the regret of many thousands citizens.

DR. G. H. RICHARDSON.
Our readers will join with us in congratulating the Administration on the selection of the gentleman whose cut we have given above, to occupy the position of ass't-surgeon in the army. If ever deserved recognition were given, this is surely a case. Our congratulations, Doctor.

THEY SAY.

The man who swims is often drowned.

The success of all men is in their make-up.

The woman sometimes is better fortified than the man.

Don't be alarmed when you are called to serve your country.

The old bird is often caught.

The new man is in the new woman.

The rights of citizenship is denied the negro.

They will test the loyalty of the negro.

They haven't been testing his loyalty.

Why should his loyalty be tested now?

At any rate the President sees how the bluff will work.

Bluffs will do some good sometimes.

War bluffs will not work.

Some people will make a bluff when it is not necessary.

Let us have peace or a few colored regiments.

The negro is an apologist.

In that he lacks manhood and courage.

Negro delegations are made up on street corners.

Think well and speak kindly of your friends.

What is in a name when you have not the courage to sustain it?

The peevish editor of the Odd Fellows Journal, in Philadelphia is suffering with idiotic spells.

In union there is strength.

It is not the great man who does great deeds always.

Dr. George H. Richardson has the consolation of his friends.

Honors never come single handed.

A colored man is never a leader in the estimation of other colored men, until he is given an office.

Office makes leaders some hayseed editors think.

When you know a thing of importance then tell it.

The BEE is the true defender of the people.

Your friends very often betray you.

The bunco immune recruiter should be chased.

He is a fraud and a beat.

Why frauds are allowed to run at large, is a mystery.

The colored patriots will have a chance to show their loyalty.

Speak the truth always, it is best.

It is a dangerous thing to tell all you know.

Never show your ignorance if you can prevent it.

Diek Greener has not gone to Bombay, India, as yet.

You should know what you are doing before you act.

Hasty steps often result in mishaps.

The white District militia left on Saturday.

Ingratitude is stronger than traitors arms.

Be true to the man who is true to you.

Never make promises that you cannot keep.

Bad promises are like bad money.

The politicians of color are on a home stretch.

They must have office or all is lost.

Register Lyons has a host of friends.

They are office-seekers pure and simple.

The "old guard," seems to be kneeling at the feet of the new guard.

The outs generally kick against the ins.

IT MAKES NO DIFFERENCE.

HISTORY records that there are at least a few white men in the South who have the courage to do the square thing by the colored people. One of the very few instances recorded, is the action of Gov. Russell of North Carolina, to not only raise a regiment of colored soldiers, but also to officer the regiment from colonel down to sergeant with colored men. Hitherto, we have been induced to believe that only southern democrats were the true friends of the race, but the misrepresentation will no longer stand, for the reason that the governor of North Carolina is a republican of the most pronounced sort. Some of our democratic friends tell us that the governor was actuated by purely political motives. They say that in his heart he is our enemy and is simply using the Negro vote as a stepping-stone to secure his own elevation. This kind of talk used to go but it does not go now. We have come to learn that empty profession cannot stand for anything but hypocrisy, and that the only way to prove friendship is by performing acts of friendship in no doubtful way. It may be that the action of the governor was advised by the leading colored men of the State. Hon. Geo. H. White, H. P. Cheatham, Dancy and Young, have been working to secure recognition in the army as officers, and they have succeeded admirably. And right here it would not be out of place to drop the suggestion that if the so-called leaders who are loafing around Washington waiting for the few crumbs which might fall from the President's table, would go home and do their utmost toward securing recognition for colored soldiers in their respective States, the result would be far different and more satisfactory. All honor to the Governor of North Carolina, and the noble colored men who urged him to his just act. That the example may be followed by other governors north and south, to the end that the boasted land of the free and home of the brave shall emphasize the brotherhood of man is the hope of all well thinking people. It makes no difference what the motive of the governor was—let others exercise similar motives.

THINGS ABROAD.

THE war seems to be absorbing public interest. The question now is, how are things going abroad? And we are deeply interested in that regard, and hope and look for brilliant and complete victories for the stars and stripes. But soon, attention will be turned toward politics as a means of securing men to legislate for the war and other things. At that time the colored man will be called upon to vote and he will not be inclined to forget who his friends are. The lead pencil may still prove to be mightier than the sword.

The Daily Post is of the opinion that the negro is not needed in this war.

The negro is never needed until the pinching time comes.

The President will insist that negroes be given recognition under the District government.

THE NORTH AND SOUTH.

THE disposition on the part of Mr. McKinley to seek the reconciliation of the North and South by liberally dispensing shoulder-straps to ex-Rebel as well as ex-Union soldiers, is certainly to be commended. The unification of all of the elements which make up this composite nation, is essential to the peace, happiness, prosperity and perpetuity of the Republic, and there is no more opportune time to bring discordant elements into harmony than at a time when the country is being assailed by a foreign power. For purposes of defense as well as the welding of the sections in sympathy and interest, this recognition is another exhibition of the wisdom displayed by Mr. McKinley. But aside from the race sympathy and interests involved in the matter, there are moral considerations which should not be overlooked or discarded. Up to the present time there has been no effort to give the colored citizen the recognition which is commensurate with his ardent patriotism, party fidelity and general loyalty. He is not given the same opportunity offered to the whites. This delay may not be due to any spirit of unkindness on the part of the present administration; but may be, and probably is the result of a morbid spirit of hatred and prejudice manifested by the southern white man and the southern press. The colored citizen is loyal enough, but uniform and spiteful discrimination based on color is not the best means of stimulating patriotism. It is hoped that Mr. McKinley will display a broad statesmanship and philanthropy and moral heroism, as well as plain fairness toward the black allies, and despite the hateful prejudices which are besetting him, place the colored soldier in such an attitude toward the government as will develop a higher appreciation of the institutions which surround him and a high regard for our President.

The men who are clamoring against the claims of the colored man, were once found battering down the bulwarks of liberty and attempting to forever destroy the nation.

TREACHERY OF NEGRO ATTORNEYS.

THE question has often been asked why it is that some colored attorneys cannot succeed better than they do? It is a very easy question to answer, if one would only stop to consider that some of them, while they are good lawyers, lack good morals and honesty. These, more than anything else, are the impediments to the success of many colored members of the bar. There are some honorable and upright members of the bar, and there are some others who are more fit for the "farm" and associates of blacklegs. If there were allies to cut-throats, you can find them among some men calling themselves lawyers. Some of them do nothing but blackguard one another to clients who may be looking for a brother lawyer. If they don't do that, they will take a case for twenty-five cents; in fact, there are many who will take cases for nothing, for the sake of having it said that they are practicing. The Court has endeavored to dignify the profession by making certain rules against "cappers" who have done much to cast aspersions on the legal profession. For this, and many other reasons the Negro attorney is barred from the bar association. The shy lawyer hangs around the courts, while the real dignified attorney waits for cases to come to him. There is a great deal of deception among many of them, whose stock in trade is to misrepresent facts to their clients. The business among some of the honest lawyers is to a great extent injured by the trickery and dishonesty of a few others who do not seem to care what they do.

It is hoped that the people will not judge all lawyers of color alike. The lawyer who guarantees in advance the success of any case that may be given him, is not honest to his client. The legal profession, so far as some colored attorneys are concerned, is in need of reformation.

NOT SURPRISING.

From the Denver, (Col.) Statesman.

When the first colored delegate from Colorado to a republican national convention can hold down the whole delegation and then be rewarded with a janitorship, we must pause to weep.

That is nothing. Eleven colored delegates from Texas, allowed one white man to vote them as he wanted and the remaining negro delegates with others combined placed a white man on the national committee who subsequently appointed all white men to every office in the state. The Texas negroes are now wondering whether they are dead or alive. The latest report is that they are all dead, but hope to resurrect in 1900.

WHAT I SAW AND HEARD.

Some people are of the opinion that patriotism means making a grand stand play.

Public Printer Palmer, remarked a republican politician, a few days ago, is one of the few public men who does just what he says.

Commissioner J. W. Ross is not insincere to his friends. If all democrats were as good as Mr. Ross we would need no republican party, so far as negroes are concerned. Whatever his faults may be, he is an honest man.

Register Lyons has gone South to fix up a few fences that were about to fall. The register has a heavy responsibility upon his shoulders. The colonel will do his duty, but I fear the job will be too much for him.

Rev. J. Anderson Taylor is to be congratulated over his election as president of the Baptist Association. Rev. Taylor is a man on whom you can rely. The association has an able and active president.

Recorder H. P. Cheatham has reasons to feel proud of his state, North Carolina. Dr. Shepperd said the other day, that the entire regiment from North Carolina will be colored men. The governor has struck a key note.

Yes there will be a member of the Ex-Board in place of Mr. Johnson. He may be distasteful to some people but he is a gentleman who has a large constituency behind him than any young man in this country. This is a political administration and the man whose pole is not long enough to knock down the persimmons he "is not in it."

There is one man in public office who has the respect and confidence of all who know him. He is a genial man and an up-to-date official. He is the deputy register of the treasury, Mr. Chew. He has a white face, as well as a white heart.

There are some colored people who are of the opinion that the white people are opposed to them. What the white people want the negro to do is, to depend more upon themselves, educate their children and be good citizens. If the colored agitators are of the opinion that they can force their boys and girls in white business houses, they are mistaken. What the colored man must do is to establish his own business houses and employ his own boys and girls. We must learn how to do for ourselves.

If one half of the Salvation army would devote a little of their religion in reforming the thieves who are caught, instead of trying to break up saloons it would be doing a good business. It does seem ridiculous that people who call themselves temperance advocates should be continually endeavoring to break up a legitimate business.

Business must be dull among the police. The poor negro is certainly being brought up under the Edmund's law, while the white man and woman are allowed to go unmolested.

There seems to be no more satisfaction with the appointment of Capt. Beach than there was with the retention of Capt. Black.

Whatever Dr. Purvis faults may be, said a local politician a few days ago, he never was too white to employ colored people to do his work and was never too proud to do his duty to his friends.

District Attorney Davis is making a strong fight to convict Canty. —Rounder

OUR SEVENTEENTH YEAR.

This day THE WASHINGTON BEE enters into its seventeenth year. It has seen many flowers fade. It has written many obituaries of false prophets, who have on many occasions predicted its death. We have fearlessly exposed wrong doing and condemned wrongs against the deserving. Neither judges of courts or Presidents of the United States have escaped condemnation when they deserved it. The offer of office has been no inducement to us nor has threatened incarceration stayed the hand against corrupt officials who used their offices to corrupt the morals of the community.

We have found in the proud Caucasian a friendly ally and supporter. He has seen in THE BEE such merits that have commended it as an advertising medium and an honest advocate of those principles which honest people appreciate. We are steadily advancing in the art of journalism and hope some day to be upon an equal footing with the progressive journals in this country. Our opinions and comments have been quoted by some of the leading journals of the country for which we feel assured that what we said commanded the attention of men far superior to ourselves in the art of journalism and thought.

To our many thousands of patrons white and colored, the management shall ever remember, with gratitude the support and encouragement that have been tendered a struggling journal. We hope, however, within a few months to have a daily BEE and a school of printing for the colored youths.

KINDERGARTEN.

There is great need for the introduction of the kindergarten in our public schools. Such an institution would add greatly to the efficiency of the system and relieve the teachers of the lower grades of much time and trouble. But the kindergarten teacher should be the very best in quality and selected with great care by the trustees.

The crop which has been trained in "colored classes" and under doubtful tutelage, presumably to supply our schools, should be looked upon merely as so many candidates and not as possessing any preferred claims upon our schools. If the young ladies have been misled into the hope that they would be appointed, the blame is to fall upon those who have so inspired them. It is possible to find among the "colored class" pupils with the ability necessary, in which case they ought not be ignored, but classes mustered under conditions, which tend to contract them morally and mentally are not the ones from which we are to expect the best results. Kindergarten training is helpful to the individual and if it bears no other fruit, it is worth the time and study. But "colored classes" are not the best gardens in which to propagate the most fully developed flowers.

A NEW COMER.

WE welcome to our exchange list the New York Illustrated Bee. It is an eight-page illustrated paper, well edited and typographically perfect. We hope to see it often.

SCHOOL OF PRINTING.

A SCHOOL FOR COLORED YOUTHS.

THE BEE Printing Company, will very shortly organize a school of printing. It is the intention of the management to give the colored youth full instructions in the art of printing. This school will have all the conveniences in the art of printing so that every youth when he leaves will be fully competent to do all kinds of work. Young men who are anxious to learn will make application to the director at THE BEE Office, 1109 I street, n. w.

W. L. PRICE.

One of the best, if not the best photographers in this city is Mr. W. L. Price, at 723 7th street northwest. This is the only place in the city where pictures of citizens are properly taken. Mr. Price with his competent corps of assistants, will give you satisfaction. Give him a trial.

While in South Washington don't fail to call in and see Edward Flynn a great boy and will entertain you well.

GENERAL NEWS.

There is a general talk among ministers and others about places of resort and recreation, and regret most seriously the unfortunate state of affairs among the steam boat operators who have invested so much to their own financial destruction.

Mr. James Johnson of South Washington, who is well known to all at the national Capitol, being a life long member of the City Post-office corps and of the Protestant Episcopal church, is again making his convictions responsibility and best wishes of his many friends, equal another effort for an episcopal church, through a nucleus now being formed.

In answer to an inquiry of the possibility, he said yes decidedly so, it not only can be done, but ought to be done. East and North Washington have their Episcopal, Catholic and Lutheran churches, and why not South Washington with her vast population have one Episcopal church?

At the time of our first failure, we had no bishop in Washington and only a few friends, but we have now, a bishop and many friends.

The corner stone laying at the Macedonia Baptist church, Saratoga and Vincent Sts., Baltimore, Md., with Rev. A. B. Callis, B. D., pastor, adds to the corps of beautiful churches of that city another evidence of religious development and christian brotherhood. The sermon was delivered by Rev. R. S. Laws, D. D., from Gen. 28, xxii. Subject: "God's house." The edifice is 50x60 feet, built of brick with a stone front.

Revs. R. V. Peyton, pastor of Mount Aoreb and J. C. Dent, of the Mount Moriah Baptist churches of East and South Washington are beautifully rebuilding and completing their new houses of worship for dedication in the month of July next. Rev. R. V. Peyton is enlarging and remodeling his church, 16th and N. C. ave. north-east, removing stones for furnaces and putting a pool and removing entirely the vestibule.

The Mount Moriah, in South Washington, 2nd and N. Streets, Rev. J. C. Dent, pastor. This church is a handsome building one story brick, tastefully and beautifully furnished with all modern completions and with less than $200 worth of struggle she will be dedicated free of all debts. These pastors with the exception of Rev. Geo. M. Lucas, are the youngest and most aggressive in the city.

In the National Congressional Lyceum last Sunday afternoon Mr. J. W. Cromwell, after a brief reference to the agency of was in the adjustment and development of nations in general, traced their influence in the evolution of the United States as today constituted, and dwelt at length on the relation of the negro to the present war with Spain.

Although the late Civil War had brought freedom and citizenship, the Negro was made a victim to hate and malevolence that have emasculated many of his rights and privileges won on the battle field. War amendments have been neutralized where not openly ignored, and the U. S. Supreme Court, seemingly at the behest of Mammon and the bugbear of social equality, has sanctioned the spoliation.

ROYAL BLUE TRAINS.

Between Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

In September last, railway officials from London were sent to America, to get ideas on the railway passenger service of the leading lines in this country, and in their official report, which was printed in the London Times in January, it was stated that the "Royal Blue Line" series of magnificent passenger trains, running between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, lead the world for quick and exquisite train service.

The "Royal Blue Line" service consists of nine elegant passenger trains a day in each direction between the cities named above. They are the finest and fastest trains in the world. Their equipment was built especially for the service by the Pullman Company, and includes every modern convenience known for the comfort of passengers. The trains are vestibuled from end to end, and hauled by the strongest and fastest locomotives in the United States.

The exquisite day coaches of these trains are worthy of special note. They are beautifully upholstered, each containing a washroom and smoking compartment.

The parlor cars are the most palatial ever built, being fully seventy-three feet long. In addition to this service, three new parlor cars were added in April, and are the first of this kind ever run; they are richly upholstered and ornamented throughout in most beautiful designs. A ladies' retiring-room is provided in one end of the car. This room, which is six feet square, is furnished with a beautiful dresser with large mirror and a number of drawers. On each side of it are upholstered corner seats. In another corner is a bookcase and stationery washstand. The room was designed for especial comfort of ladies, who have always claimed men had the best of it when travelling. The usual smoking apartment, however, is at the opposite end of the car.

The dining cars are operated by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and especial attention is given to the menu. Every delicacy is served in season, and the service is unsurpassed.

In addition to the already perfect service of "Royal Blue Trains" mentioned above, there will be put into service May 15 a "Royal Limited" train, which will leave New York at 1:00 P. M., making the run to Washington in FIVE hours. Returning, the "Royal Limited" will leave Washington at 3:00 P. M., arriving New York at 8:10 P. M. The "Royal Blue Line" will then boast of three trains which make this extraordinary fast time between Washington and New York, which has never been attained by any other line. The "Royal Blue Trains" between Baltimore and Washington make the run in FORTY-FIVE MINUTES—the fastest regular service ever attained between the two cities.

The terminal at New York City is the most convenient for all points in Greater New York. Passengers can land at South Ferry (Whitehall Terminal), where, under the same roof, connection is made with the elevated lines of the second, Third, Sixth and Ninth Avenues, and the Broadway, Lexington and Columbus Avenue Cables. All the Brooklyn Ferries also start from this point, and by taking

ON THE SIDE

The person who is jealous of even an enemy's prosperity entertains an evil spirit himself.

Matters not how wrong a person may be treated, he should not seek revenge. The fact should be considered, that what you mete out to others shall be meted out to you.

Laura: I don't approve of any one catering to a person in order to gain friendship, a person who caters places a low estimate on himself.

Fashion: For girls from eight to twelve years the skirts usually fall half way between the ankle and knee.

Narrow braids and small buttons are used as trimming on little girls dresses.

The separate bodice not only remains in vogue, but is made more elaborate than ever and consequently has only lost a portion of manish appearance.

Summer dresses will be decorated with rows of frills. Dotted muslin linen, lawns and pique, will be in evidence.

Taffeta of a changeable hue and figured silks will be given the preference for elaborate spring waists. Soft woolen materials will also be used.

Ella: Yes, I am of the opinion that an old maid of fifty summers is too old to wed. Of course they are not too old to love.

Marie: If the gentleman is anxious to see you he will ask the privilege of calling on you. Girls often make a mistake by inviting men to call. Men are peculiar beings. They appreciate the most, what is not easily had.

A new jacket which may be called a sleeveless bodice is given much vogue. It is an elaborate decoration of passementerie and lace or ribbon slipped over the regular bodice foundation, with which it contrasts.

The Russian blouse effect is in the lead for spring costumes.

Phyllis: Don't expect of others what you are unable to do yourself, neither criticize a person for accomplishing an act which you have not the ability to accomplish.

A man who continues to postpone his wedding is not very anxious to marry the girl he pretends to love.

No, it is not natural for a woman to endure the conduct of a mean husband nor is it reasonable for a man to remain with a woman he despises. Life is too short to live in misery.

Alex: I don't think it is the proper thing for a girl to wear mourning for a young man, to whom she is only engaged, although the wedding day may be appointed and the invitations distributed.

J. P.: Positions don't make men, although it seems hard for a man to be a gentleman in the estimation of some people except he is in office or holds an official position.

The person who suspicions every one is, himself, guilty of some offense. Suspicion haunts the guilty mind.

Some people arrogate their importance to such an extent, until they become larger or too large for their position. One should never forget from whence he came.

People who are not used to well doing are the most easy to become big-headed.

Inquirer: Mourning for a parent is worn one year longer than for a brother or sister. The veil should be worn for at least a year.

B. S.: It is the custom for the bridegroom to give some little trinket to his bride to be worn on her wedding day.

Ellen: It is unnecessary to soil your gloves by shaking hands with a person ungloved. You might say, "excuse my gloves," or better still don't extend your hand. I have seen a pair of pretty gloves ruined after the first shaking on account of this uncalled for hand-shake.

Edith: There is no special engagement ring, a man usually gives one as elaborate as his purse will permit. Foolish is the girl who expects more.

Either: You and your betrothed having the same middle name could hardly make a difference. Remember the rhyme reads: To change the name and not the letter, marry for worse and not the better.

Bettie: Never cut your finger nails until they have been soaked in warm water or anointed with vasoline. A little lemon juice will whiten them, after they are cut.

A small piece of silver is always appropriate for a wedding gift.

Remember the person who never deserts you, for he is the one usually forgotten.

Corra: The duty of young ladies is to so conduct themselves in the presence of gentlemen to command respect.

Etta: Nothing is more beautiful in woman than good and polite manners.

SECRET ORDERS.

In the May edition of the American Signet, of May 1898. It reproduces an article bearing upon the claim of the negro Shriner in this country, published by Freemason and Fez. In reply to the article in question. In August 1870, Mr. Florence was in Marseilles, France, having occasion to call on a banking company, he was invited to visit a hall near the Grand Hotel de l'Univers that evening where he visited Bokhare Shrine, presided over by Yusef Churi. Bez. Shayk Yusef had visited Bokhare where he was made a member of the Shrine in that famous city of the Persians, Mr. Florence being so much impressed with the performance, made a second visit and was presented a copy of the Ritual and Laws, and the same day he sailed for Algiers where he visited the Shrine, Abu Mohammed Baki. The Potentate being in charge. The Shrine is referred by the Moslems as the order of unwritten law in distinction from the written law which is Koran. Mr. Florence in due time was initiated Cairo, at the time Mr. Flemming visited the Temple a Marseilles. The works did not embrace the esoteric, which is never imparted to any one except from mouth to ear. Shortly afterwards M. Flemming through friends secured the manuscript, monitor and history. It was at Algiers and Alepho that he was received under the domain of the Crescent and became the possessor of the esoteric work or the unwritten work and the Shayks obligation, subsequently he visited Cairo, Egypt and was admitted. Mr. Florence was never fully recognized until long after his return to America. All he possessed was a disconnected series of sheets in Arabic and French with some marginal memoranda made by himself from verbal elucidation from which source the same was translated and in due time the order instituted among the masons of the U. S. Mr. Flemming received his favor from Risk Allah Hassoon Effendee, who has jurisdiction for America.

The Shrine was originated at Mekkah, Arabia, by Mohammedan Kalef Allee A. A. 25, A. D. 656, as an Inquisition to see that justice was meted to those who fail to receive the same from the courts, also to promote religious toleration among cultured men of all nations for a long time our white brethren claimed that the negro mason of N. A., should not receive the degrees, but Allah moving in mysterious ways caused Imperial Shayk Jones of Chicago, to read certain facts of the Koran, which read: "Take thou upon thyself through my servant Robert Pasha, the degree of Humo or the Land of Goatskins filled with camel's milk direct from Zem Zems, and impart the same among thy people; viz.: the colored brethren of the U. S. Koran, Soorab, 7-11, which being translated into English means, the year of 683 of the vulgar month, June. In time brother Jones followed divine instructions with the result that over 60 Temples under his demand.

For the information of our Pythian friends in the D. C. The reason that our matter that was left out was simple viz.: over crowded out, in future the same will receive attention.

The G. U. of T. C., has elected following Officers: P. G. master; J. W. THE BEE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW.

How many colored colonels will be appointed.

About what time the war will end.

If the colored soldier will go to the front.

How many colored patriots have offices tied to their patriotism.

If the colored attorneys will ever be honest to one another.

If the District government will ever take a few colored men in.

If treachery will ever cease among colored men.

THE BEE WOULD LIKE TO SEE.

A recognition of the public school system.

Honesty among colored representatives.

A change in the personnel of the excise board.

A colored prosecuting officer appointed.

A uniform system of practice among colored lawyers.

IT IS RUMORED.

The civil service law will be modified.

Major C. A. Fleetwood is mentioned for general.

Justice O'Donnel will be cared for.

The District troops will invade Cuba.
